GLITZ OPTICAL

Amber Jackson is the Owner and Optician of Glitz Optical. After 10+ years in the optical industry, Amber was fed up with frames not widely showcasing a variety of fits that catered to a range of people of different ethnicities and face shapes. Combining her love for the art and diversity represented within her beloved city, Dallas, she came up with a new concept to eyewear that was just as unique and inclusive-Glitz Optical. The Glitz Optical client personifies the finer things in life, not because society says it’s “fine” but because they feel “this piece was made for ME” when they wear it. Glitz Optical provides mobile service within the DFW area. It allows consumers to book a frame-stylist/optician to give consultation in the privacy of their home or place of business.
